

DOWNLOAD DOCUMENT BEFORE FILLING OUT

This track carries a concentration GPA requirement (English courses only) of 3.60.
All courses taught by English Department faculty will count toward your concentration GPA.

Prospective joint concentrators must meet with the Director of Undergraduate Studies (DUS) or the Associate Director of Undergraduate Studies (ADUS).

Please use this form to track which English concentration requirements you have already taken, and which requirements you have left to fulfill.

Your Name _____

Proposed Joint Concentration: _____

Will English be your primary or allied field? Primary Allied

The Common Ground

- 1. Arrivals (English 40-49): _____
- 2. Poets (English 50-59): _____
- 3. Migrations (English 60-69): _____

Joint Requirements

- 4. Junior Tutorial (English 98, fall or spring): _____
- 5. Senior Tutorial (English 99, fall term): _____
- 6. Senior Tutorial (English 99, spring term): _____

• You will take senior thesis credits in your primary department. If English is your allied field, you will not register for English 99r in senior year, but rather the equivalent course in your primary department.

7. Foreign Literature: _____

• Fulfilled with one pre-approved foreign literature course, English 102 & 103 sequence (Old English), or two intermediate language courses (second language class uses one "related course" option)

8. Shakespeare: _____

• Fulfilled with a variety of English Department Shakespeare courses (e.g. English 90hb: Five Shakespeare Plays; English 90sr: Shakespeare's Rome; English 121cg: Shakespeare After Hamlet; English 124d: Shakespearean Tragedies; AIU 55/English 123: Shakespeare, The Early Plays; AIU 56: Shakespeare, The Later Plays).

Joint concentrators are not required to fulfill the Diversity in Literature requirement but are strongly encouraged to do so with an additional elective.